

Have you noticed the green historical markers
dotting the highways and town greens
all over our State?

Have you ever stopped to read
our own marker
on Commerce Street?

Hill resident Pam Kelly and friend Diane Williams have been on a quest to explore the MANY historical signs in New Hampshire.

They have traveled together to photograph and study the full back-stories of these important historical markers.

Come here about their explorations and see some of their resulting portfolio of their adventures... that are still “in process”!
