Paper – town 6 range 8, 4 lots left

Bunker Hill Stephen Rosen went through the lots and review the stones and any other repairs that needed to be done.

Pleasant Hill Cemetery Stephen Rosen closed the gate and fixed the door on the tomb and small shed.

Lisa Seymour mentioned that a file cabinet is needed for the cemetery committee.

In all cemeteries bases are required for all stones.

Peggy Razzaboni presented an updated new book with the burials, owners, and dates, with proof of same for the cemeteries. (excepting Pleasant Hill).

There is a question about flowers on the Kimball Grave in Bunker Hill. Papers found state that flowers must be on the grave. Brown and Swett graves in Pleasant Hill have the same.

Stephen Rosen has another project in the works to write up and update the rules.

With no further business to conduct, Shawn Bresnahan made the motion to adjourn the meeting and Stephen Rosen seconded the motion. Motion passed unanimously at 5:42 P.M.

Respectfully submitted:
